Write exactly like an ancient runemaster with the American Futharch and this three-step process:

1. Select the word to write.
2. Identify the sounds that make up the word.
3. Write in order the runes corresponding directly to those sounds.

- Writing according to pronunciation, not spelling.
- No ugly alphabet hacks or spelling conventions.
- Made for Magic: chant and galdor with them.
- Made for Divination: carve on lots and cast.
- Poetic Key: your guide to alliteration and rhyme.
- Esotericism ready: 9 vowels for the 9 worlds and 24 consonants for the 24 roadways of Yggdrasil.
- A meaning-filled guide to American English sounds—master the mysteries of your own speech!
- A full-fledged rune system, the first in centuries, complete with The American English Rune Poem as a guide to the runic sounds and meanings!

- A reform of the Anglo-Saxon Futhorc, blending tradition and linguistic science to restore the critical missing piece: the living-language link that the ancient runemasters enjoyed.
